DESCRIPTION OF BUILDING PRODUCT

Mulford supplies Enviroslat fencing which is part of the Futurewood range.

Futurewood is a composite material manufactured from 100% recycled HDPE (high density polyethylene), wood fibre and discarded rice husks or hulls. The material is resistant to decay, fully finished, and ready for installation. It does not require recoating, although some initial weathering will occur in the first 4 – 12 weeks.

Enviroslat boards are supplied in seven different colours, to a standard 4.8 m length or customised lengths up to 5.8 m.

The boards are intended to be installed to a sub-structure (posts and rails) that have been installed to meet the building code or, where existing, the sub-structure has sufficient structural stability for the fencing installation.

CONTRIBUTION TO BUILDING WORK CODE OBLIGATIONS

Mulford relies on the claims of the manufacturer in making these claims.

Enviroslat fencing will comply with or contribute to compliance with the following performance criteria, as applicable.

- B1 (Structure): B1.3.1, B1.3.2, B1.3.3 (a, h, q)
- B2 (Durability): B2.3.1 (b), B2.3.2 (b)
- F2 (Hazardous Building Materials): F2.3.1.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

Enviroslat fencing must be installed and maintained with all Mulford requirements.

This information may be found at www.futurewood.nz.

RESPONSIBLE PERSON

In accordance with Regulation 8, as the responsible person I confirm that the information supplied in this declaration is based on information supplied to the company as well as the company's own processes and is therefore to the best of my knowledge, correct.

I can also confirm that Enviroslat fencing, as referred to in this statement, is not subject to a warning or ban under s26 of the Building Act.
